Ethical investing is an investment approach that aligns an individual's moral beliefs with the investment philosophy of a fund

Islamic Finance is a growing subset of ethical investing alongside Environmental, Social and Governance (ESG) and Socially Responsible Investing (SRI). The principles driving the three investment styles often overlap and complement each other because at the cornerstone of all three, is the long-term sustainability of investors' assets and the economy.

Islamic funds invest in accordance to Shari'ah principles

Shari'ah funds differ from other ethical investments in that they also exclude debt-bearing instruments. Investors therefore inherently avoid the risks which result from companies taking excessive leverage. Shari'ah funds also offer an additional layer of governance in that investments are mandated to appoint an independent Shari'ah Advisory Committee (formerly known as "Shari'ah Supervisory Board") that ensures that each investment decision complies with Islamic principles; a practice which promotes fairness and transparency.

STANLIB Multi-Manager Shari'ah Balanced Fund of Funds

The STANLIB Multi-Manager Shari'ah Balanced Fund of Funds is approved by the STANLIB Multi-Manager Shari'ah Advisory Committee. The Fund's construct consists of both specialist and balanced managers making it the first of its kind in South Africa. Through its construction framework, investors benefit from superior diversification across multiple asset classes domestically and globally, multiple styles and multiple managers.

The underlying managers are also required to invest in accordance with the Shari'ah principles, i.e. are not permitted to invest in interest-bearing instruments or companies whose core business is alcohol, pork, tobacco, gambling, conventional interest-based financial services, or weapons and defence.

Investment objective

The objective of the Fund is to provide investors with a Shari'ah compliant solution that combines prudent risk management, market outperformance and Shari'ah principles, while also complying with Regulation 28 of the Pension Funds Act.

Investment mandate

The Fund is a multi-managed fund of funds. STANLIB Multi-Manager selects managers from the Shari'ah compliant universe, combining them into a well-diversified Shari'ah compliant fund.

The STANLIB Multi-Manager Shari'ah Balanced Fund of Funds aims to outperform the average return of Shari'ah Balanced peers, but remain competitive in the applicable ASISA SA Multi-Asset High Equity Category. We do this by blending skilful managers to create natural balance within a portfolio relative to its stated objective.

Our aim is to build a portfolio with the highest probability of outperforming its objective. Ultimately, skill and diversity are key ingredients in the blending process of a multi-managed balanced portfolio.

Who would invest in this Fund?

- Individuals and businesses requiring an ethical investment that complies with Shari'ah principles whilst offering excellent medium- to long-term growth without the high volatility that may be experienced in equity funds
- Company pension funds requiring a Shari'ah compliant or ethical investment solution

Portfolio managers

The Fund is co-managed by Nadeem Hoosen and Malcolm Holmes.

Nadeem Hoosen

Portfolio Manager – BusSc, CFA

Nadeem is driven by a passion for critical thinking and analysis. Prior to joining the STANLIB Multi-Manager team, he was Head of Strategic Finance at STANLIB LISP, where he was instrumental in solving financial issues, as well as being involved in strategic planning, forecasting and financial modelling of the business unit.

He has more than 15 years' experience in financial services, having started his career at Merrill Lynch and pursuing a passion that led him to asset management. He joined the investment team at Oasis, eventually heading up their unit trust management company. His other roles have included operations management at JP Morgan and African Alliance. Nadeem holds a BBusSc (Finance) from the University of Cape Town and is a CFA Charterholder. He is currently completing his MSc (Engineering) at the University of the Witwatersrand.

Malcolm Holmes

Joint Head of Portfolio Management (SA) - BCom (Hons), CFAA

Malcolm started his career at Standard Bank in 1995 and transferred into the Asset Management division in 1996. Initially starting as a portfolio assistant, Malcolm moved quickly into research covering property, electronic and technology companies. Based on the expertise gained in analysing technology companies, he became a registered portfolio manager and launched the Standard Bank Science and Technology Fund in January 1999 and the Standard Bank Global Technology Fund in October 2000. Allied to this, within the SCMB Asset Management portfolio management team, he was responsible for managing traditional balanced mandates for pension fund clients.

In July 2002, he moved to Lodestone Investment which was subsequently renamed STANLIB Multi-Manager. Malcolm has been a key driver of STANLIB Multi-Manager's success over the years and embodies the values of and culture in our business.

Shari'ah compliance

The Fund has two layers of Shari'ah compliance:

- The internal compliance measures of the underlying managers
- STANLIB Multi-Manager Shari'ah Advisory Committee

The key elements of Shari'ah compliant investing are:

Avoidance of interest

Avoidance of excessive uncertainty

Avoidance of gambling

Avoidance of morally blameworthy activities

Cash held by either STANLIB Multi-Manager or the underlying managers of the Fund, will be held in Islamic banking or non-interest bearing accounts. Any non-permissible income earned by investee companies will be removed from the Fund on regular basis and distributed to charities vetted and approved by our Shari'ah Advisory Committee.

Independent Shari'ah Advisory Committee

To ensure continuous compliance with Shari'ah principles, we receive guidance from our independent Shari'ah Advisory Committee, consisting of experienced Shari'ah scholars. Our Shari'ah Advisory Committee meets twice a year, to analyse and audit the Fund. The members of the STANLIB Multi-Manager Shari'ah Advisory Committee, effective 1 July 2018, are:
